Hunting according to the Erongo Recordbook principles:

- Game animals within the natural, historical habitat of the specific species
- In an area where the game animals are able to elude the pursuits of the hunter beyond the boundaries of such an area
- In an area where at least one of the five large African beasts of prey occurs (Lion, Leopard, Cheetah, African Wild Dog and Spotted Hyena) and evidently regulates the game populations in the specific area
- It is the goal of the Erongo Recordbook to ensure the sustainability of hunting game animals. Only such trophies can be entered into the Recordbook, whose carriers were fully mature and hence were able to take part in the reproduction process of a healthy population; very old trophy animals will be revalued by a multiplier.

Herewith I, _____, declare that I understand and support the Erongo Recordbook principles and apply for the Erongo Recordbook certificate for the following area(s) _____
